Let Your Spooky Fly at WIE...

Wow, time flies when you are having fun! Bridge Day and Halloween are upon us and Wood Iron Eatery is in full fall swing! We have been moving and shaking and getting to know you as we tweak things here and there to suit your fancy.

This being our first Bridge Day weekend, we will extend the hours if there is a demand for it. We will play it by ear this weekend, so if there is a crowd visiting us in the afternoon and you are wanting breakfast for lunch, lunch for breakfast, or lunch for lunch, you may be in luck! Or, swing by early and get a warm caffeine fix before you hop over to the bridge.

Speaking of hopping, Wood Iron Eatery is proud to sponsor our very own locally grown BASE jumper, Marcus Ellison. He is an amazing talent and organizer of the Bridge Day jumping activities, so go see if you can spot him as he delights and awes the onlookers. You may even see him sporting a WIE t-shirt at some point this weekend... Don't worry, you can get your own Wood Iron apparel by stopping by the restaurant. But don't wait, they are limited editions. Be like Marcus and get them while they are hot off the t-shirt press.

Thank you for signing up for updates on woodironeatery.com and for being part of the Wood Iron family.

Another very exciting thing we have on our plates this month is a super spooktacular art unveiling of "Revenge of the Plant People" by local artist Judge Kirkpatrick III, a Circuit Court Judge in Raleigh County.

We are honored and so very excited to host the event, which will happen October 27, from 5-7 pm. Stop by and check out the horror of the inner workings of Judge Kirk's mind, which is sure to get you in the mood for Halloween.

Hors d'oeuvres by Jeffrey will offered as well. It is the can't-miss event of the season!
